

I like Sonic Net as a local provider...their service is fast, efficient, and beyond par. You can get help 24/7 and don't have to wait for long periods of time. To make this a "monopoly" would be a travesty...let SonicNet continue to provide the excellent service it already does.